

Are you ANVC's Stroke Clinician of the Year?

Stroke clinicians are essential to the care and recovery of patients with stroke. Skilled stroke clinicians implement care strategies, recognise and escalate early signs of deterioration, provide support and comfort to the patient and their families and oversee all aspects of the patient's journey with stroke. The ANVC wants to recognize and highlight the contributions you make every single day to the lives and wellbeing of our stroke patients and greater stroke community, Because stroke patients deserve nothing less.

We invite nominations of stroke clinicians, individuals or groups, who have made a significant contribution to their patients, stroke program, community, prehospital emergency services, or policy making in order to reduce the burden of stroke during 2024-2025. Self-nominations are welcome.

The winner will receive a plaque recognizing their achievement; free registration to the annual ANVC Conference in The Woodlands, TX on November 15th – 16th; and a $1000 honorarium.

Nomination inclusions, terms and conditions:

- A description (max. 100 words) of the contribution worthy of this recognition
- A brief biographical statement (max. 100 words) that describes the individual or group, including place of employment, credentials and other key information
- A professional photo which will be placed on the ANVC website and used in promotional announcements in both email and social media
- Nominees must be a member of ANVC (Current board members and Past Presidents are ineligible; volunteer committee members are eligible)
- Nominations will close on April 30, 2024
- Nominees will be notified of their nomination to ensure that they
  - are aware of, and agree to, all terms and conditions as detailed here;
  - understand and agree that incomplete applications will be rejected;
  - understand that failure to comply with these terms and conditions could result in an application being rejected or the next runner-up announced as the winner; and

- agree that their supplied image, details of their contribution and the announcement of the award will appear on the ANVC website and social media pages, as well as photos taken during the announcement / conference
- Nominations close April 30th 2024
- The winner will be elected by the ANVC members. Election to be held in August 2024
- The winner will be presented at the annual ANVC Conference in The Woodlands, TX on November 15th – 16th 2024
- The winner must register for, and attend the annual ANVC conference
  - In the event that registration fees have already been paid, the winner will be reimbursed the cost of registration
  - If the winner is a group, free registration will be provided for one (1) member of the group only